Showing Gearhart Hotel, Gearhart, Oregon. Note the stabilized condition around the hotel, resulting from the heavy cover of Sea Lyme Grass (Elymus mollis). This is in direct contrast to the area adjacent to the buildings in the right foreground. Here the vegetation has been destroyed. Annual removel of sand is necessary in maintenance of many ocean front resorts where beach vegetation is lacking. Clatsop County, Oregon.

A-ORE-35013
October 22, 1937

J. G. James (photographer)
D. L. Swartz (pilot)
Region 11

OREGON STATE FORESTRY DEPARTMENT
ROUTE 1, BOX 339
ASTORIA, OREGON 97103

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPH
U. S. Department of Agriculture
Soil Conservation Service
Region 11, Spokane, Wn.
Do Not Publish or Release
Without Authority from Regional Office